

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Equal air time must be offered to pro-Kerry messages.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. A closer eye must be kept on these media conglomerates to prevent such suppression of the First Amendment. Thank you.
